Why should I refer to a MyHome salesperson?

A MyHome salesperson is more than just a "sales person." They act on your behalf as your agent, providing you with advice and guidance and doing a job – helping you buy or sell a home. While it is true they get paid for what they do, so do other professions that provide advice, guidance.

Should I talk with a bank before looking at homes?

Should I buy or continue to rent?

Can I find a rent-to-own property?
